This is the reflection/devotion on Psalm 139 by Kimberly Brooks Byne that Mike sent out with the AllCall on Wednesday. We thought you might like having it in print.

I am the LORD of the universe, the one who created everything. Like the stars for example, created by the breath of My mouth, and the heavens and the earth, created with a word. From the highest summits to the ocean's depths nothing escapes Me. The earth trembles under My gaze and shakes at the sound of My voice.

None of this world's vibrations are unknown to Me. Because I am the almighty, sometimes you imagine Me to be so far away...while I'm so close. Do you suppose I'm so busy holding this world in My hands that I no longer have time to hold your heart in Mine?

I called you into existence and made you My child. Your name is engraved upon My hands and in the nail pierced scars of my Son's hands. Know that I am here. I am close. I am one prayer, one word away. I am here. You are never alone.
