

PRAYER LIST

Please keep the following in your prayers & continue to pray for our military and government leaders.

Craig Bayhi - Is doing some better. He is now in rehab. Keith Johnson/brother-in-law

Rhonda -Her doctor has determined that the cancer is in her teeth only. She is seeking a 2nd opinion. Please pray for comfort, encouragement and the right answers for her. Lori Fookes/sister

Richard Colvin - Is back in St. E after his bout with Covid. He has heart and kidney problems and is now on dialysis. Roger & Amy Hurst/friend

Delphie Hooten - Is in St. E at Edgewood with heart problems.

Amber Vaughn - Fell and hurt her left knee. Had already torn her ACL before she fell. Delphie Hooten/niece

Margie Hartzel - Was taken to the ER on Monday with extreme back pain. Has been feeling very "off" the last few weeks. Her bloodwork came back normal but the MRI showed inflammation in her back. More tests will be run to determine diagnosis/treatment.

Don Rice - Is back home but struggling. Please pray for God's help with his many difficulties. David Rice/Dad

Prayer of Praise! - Kendrick Allen Mathis was born last Saturday. He weighed in at 7lbs, 14oz. and is 21 inches long. Abby and Kendrick are both doing well. 😊

DID YOU KNOW?

Two of our GCCC girls appeared in the Falmouth Outlook this week!!

Ana McFarland was featured for setting a UPIKE archery record in her first collegiate tournament! Way to go, Ana!! We are so proud of you!!!

Emma Reid smiled at us from the front page in an article explaining the return to in-person learning five days a week at all Pendleton County schools. We would know that sweet face anywhere! Mask or no mask! 😊
